

Agile Scrum Master

Module 1: Agile

- An Overview of Agile
- Why Agile?
- Significance of Agile
- Agile Manifesto
- Various Principles in Agile
- Agile Frameworks
- Project Management: The Changing Scenario
- Agile: Traditional Approach
- Agile Facts and Figures
- Agile: Estimating, Planning, Monitoring, and Control
- Agile on Complex Projects

Module 2: Agile Planning , Estimation & Analysis

- Understanding Agile Planning
- Understanding Agile Monitoring and Adapting
- Task/Kaban Boards
- What is Timeboxing?
- Planning: Iteration and Release Planning
- WIP Limits
- Burn Down/Up Charts

- Understanding Cumulative Flow Diagrams
- Defining Process Tailoring
- Variance and Trend Analysis

Module 3: Agile Communication ,Soft skills and product quality

- Agile Communication
- Understanding Information Radiator
- Agile Tooling
- Osmotic Communications
- Two-way Communication
- Daily Stand-Ups
- Active Listening

Module 4: Risk Management

- What is Risk Management?
- Risk-Adjusted Backlog
- Risk Based and Architectural Spike
- Earned Value Management(EVM)
- Value Stream Mapping
- Value Based Prioritization
- Customer-Valued Prioritization
- Minimal Viable Product

Module 5: Scrum

- An Overview of Scrum

- Features of Scrum
- Product Owner
- Planning Poker
- What is Sprint
- Scrum Master
- Manager in Scrum
- Scrum Pre-planning meeting
- Sprint Calendar

Module 6: Scrum Metrics, Planning & Estimation

- Iterations
- Business Value Delivered
- Velocity
- BurnDown
- Code Coverage and Pairing
- Release Planning
- Velocity and Historical Data
- Planning a Release in Scrum
- Advantages and Disadvantages of Scrum
- Best Practices in Scrum
- Proficient in Scrum terminologies and their applications
- Ready to facilitate daily scrums, user stories, sprint planning, and sprint reviews

- Capable of producing the different Scrum artifacts including the product backlog, sprint backlog, finished deliverables, and definition of done
- Equipped to implement distributed Scrum over teams spread across geographies
- Prepared for a Scrum Master role with any Scrum implementing organization
- Prepared to setup and handle projects on a JIRA cloud site
- Prepared to pass the EXIN Agile Scrum Master exam on your first attempt