

ITIL® 4 Specialist: Drive Stakeholder Value (DSV) Certification

INTRODUCTION AND KEY CONCEPTS

- Introduction to ITIL and ITIL 4
- Recap of ITIL 4 Foundation
- Recap of core components of ITIL
- Introduction to DSV
- Importance of Engagement
- DSV: Key Terms and Concepts

THE CUSTOMER JOURNEY

Understanding customer journeys

- Purpose and value of customer journeys
- Steps involved in customer journeys
- Stages involved in customer journeys
- Touchpoints and interactions
- Mapping customer journeys: Need and purpose
- Draw a customer journey map
- Customer experience
- Key aspects involved in designing customer journeys
- Design thinking
- The role of Behavioural Psychology
- Design and culture
- Measuring and improving customer journey

CUSTOMER JOURNEY: EXPLORE

Explore: overview and common pitfalls

- Explore: from the service consumer and provider perspective
- Purpose of the organization and different stakeholders
- PESTLE and SWOT Analysis
- Objectives and opportunities for service risks and mitigation
- Identify, evaluate and select service providers
- Understanding markets
- Market segmentation
- Identifying and analyzing service consumers
- Targeting markets and value proposition
- Marketplace and market space
- Personalizing and profiling
- Targeted marketing
- Brand and reputation

- Sustainability and triple bottom-line
- Importance of existing customers

CUSTOMER JOURNEY: ENGAGE

- Introduction to 'Engage'
- The purpose of Engage
- Communicating and collaborating
- Listening
- Why care about diversity in communication
- Types of service relationships – Parts 1 and 2
- Service relationship
- Service relationship ladder
- Service relationship ladder: Creating an environment that allows relationship patterns to emerge
- Service relationship ladder: Building and sustaining trust and relationships
- Understanding service provider capabilities
- Understanding customer needs
- Supplier and partner relationships
- Applying Practice: Key aspects of Relationship Management
- Applying Practice: Practice Success Factors (PSF) in Relationship Management
- Applying Practice: Practice Success Factors (PSF) in Supplier Management

CUSTOMER JOURNEY: OFFER

- Purpose of 'Offer'
- Managing demand and opportunities
- Shaping and smoothing demand
- Business case
- Specifying and managing customer requirements
- Minimum Viable Product
- User stories and story mapping
- Applying the MOSCOW method
- Weighted Shortest Job First (WSJF)
- Designing service offerings and user experience
- Lean thinking
- Agile software development approach
- Designing approaches
- Design for onboarding
- Selling and obtaining service offerings
- Applying practice: Business Analysis

CUSTOMER JOURNEY: AGREE

- Introduction to 'Agree'
- Purpose of Agree
- Service value drivers

- Service interaction method
- Service quality and service level
- Characteristics of service
- Negotiating and agreeing service
- Forms of agreement – Parts 1 and 2
- Outcome-based Agreements
- Consumer needs to Agreement
- Content and structure of SLA
- Negotiating and agreeing utility, warranty, and experience
- Negotiating and agreeing other terms and conditions
- Standardizing and automating agreements
- Applying Practice: Service Level Management
- Applying Practice: Practice Success Factors (PSF) Part 1
- Applying Practice: Practice Success Factors (PSF) Part 2

CUSTOMER JOURNEY: ONBOARD

- Purpose of 'Onboard'
- Planning Onboarding
- Fostering relationships with users
- User engagement and delivery channels
- Enabling users for services
- Enabling mutual capabilities
- Offboarding customers and users
- Applying practice: Service Catalogue Management
- Practice Success Factors of Service Catalogue Management - Part1
- Practice Success Factors of Service Catalogue Management - Part 2
- Applying Practice: Service Desk
- Applying Practice: Practice Success Factors (PSFs) - Part 1
- Applying Practice: Practice Success Factors (PSFs) - Part 2

CUSTOMER JOURNEY: CO-CREATE

- Purpose of 'Co-create'
- Fostering a service mindset
- Service mindset: Provision
- Service mindset: Consumption
- Provision of user services
- Activities within ongoing Service Interactions
- Service requests
- Service desk interactions
- Exceptions – when things go wrong
- Moments of truth
- Intelligent disobedience
- Customer and user feedback

- Nurturing user communities
- Applying Practice: Co-create
- Applying Practice: Practice Success Factors (PSFs) – Part 1
- Applying Practice: Practice Success Factors (PSFs) – Part 2

CUSTOMER JOURNEY: REALIZE

- Purpose of 'Realize'
- Validating service value
- Tracking value realization
- Service profit chain model
- Tracking experience and satisfaction
- Assessing and reporting value realization
- Evaluating value realization and improving customer journeys
- Evaluation, verification and continual improvement
- Realizing value for the service provider
- Charging and billing
- Applying Practice: Portfolio management
- Applying Practice: Practice Success Factors (PSFs) – Part 1
- Applying Practice: Practice Success Factors (PSFs) – Part 2